Golf & Resort
The Home of
White Nights Golf

GORKI Golf & Resort is the first golf club in the North-West region of Russia just 50 km away from historical St. Petersburg. With a Par 72 championship 18-hole golf course made in the best traditions of the famous Scottish inland links courses and a total length of 6,505 meters, the pioneer establishment is designed to cater to the demanding golfing audience of the area and even offers on-site residencies.

GORKI Golf clubhouse and restaurant are located at the highest point of the golf resort and provide a perfect opportunity to relax in the club's manifold forms of hospitality. In a cozy two-storied restaurant guests can recuperate from the game, enjoy food and drinks and watch the goings-on on the golf course through panoramic windows. The restaurant offers European and Russian cuisine to suit all tastes.
