

GORKI Golf & Resort is the first golf club in the North-West region of Russia just 50 km away from historical St. Petersburg.

The shaping and strategy of GORKI Golf course have strong ties going back to golf's roots. With a Par 72 championship 18-hole GORKI Golf course made in the best traditions of the famous Scottish inland links courses. Expansive playing areas with short grass make it easy to keep a ball in play.

Vigilance is required from the first tee shot. Golfers that want a challenge can play the course at 6560 meters. This length makes hosting major tournaments a possibility. At its shortest, the course plays 4691 meters affording a pleasant experience for beginners and less-experienced players.

The Clubhouse and restaurant are located at the highest point of the golf resort and provide a perfect opportunity to relax in the club's manifold forms of hospitality. In a cozy two-storied restaurant, guests can recuperate from the game, enjoy food and drinks and watch the goings-on on the golf course through panoramic windows. The restaurant offers European and Russian cuisine to suit all tastes.
